Why our mother deserves this giveaway. I could give a million reasons but will just give a few starting with she's a mother of ten. 7 girls and 3 boys ages ranging from 6-30 years old. She's been married for 23 years and has her spent whole life raising and taking care of babies. Now, we all know as mothers even if you only have one child everything becomes about them. I've watched as she never complained about her teeth while I know they bothered her. We always joke that if we win the lottery what we would all do first and it's to help momma fix her teeth because she deserves that for herself. This would be an amazing gift to give her, and we would be forever grateful.
